

SUMMARY OF THE IMPORTANT NEWS.

Interesting Happenings That Occurred During the Past Few Days.

ACTION OF GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS

Exciting Events in the United States and Foreign Countries Condensed For the Busy Reader—Crimes and Casualties.

The body of the late Secretary John Hay rests in his family burying ground in a corner of Lakeview cemetery, Cleveland, O. The ceremonies, which were simple, were witnessed by the president and vice president of the United States, the cabinet and many other distinguished personages. The services throughout were admirably conducted, in most excellent taste, and from the arrival of President Roosevelt in the morning until his departure in the afternoon brought the official day to its end, not a single untoward incident was in evidence.

Mrs. Hay, widow of the late secretary of state, arrived at Newbury, N. H., in her return from Cleveland. She was accompanied by her son Clarence and proceeded at once to "The Falls."

England paid to the memory of Secretary Hay a tribute seldom accorded to a foreigner when solemn memorial services were held in St. Paul's cathedral, London. The immense edifice was crowded.

M. Muraviev will receive special instructions from the emperor and consult with the various ministers and will leave with his suite for Washington probably about July 20.

Six ringleaders of the mutiny on the battleship Georgi Pobedonostzev have been ordered hanged, without trial, by the naval officials. It is even reported and largely credited that the men have been hanged already.

Gen. Linevitch, in a telegram to the emperor dated July 5, and confirming the defeat of the Japanese at Sanvise, when a Japanese battalion was annihilated, says that after the capture of the position and the flight of the Japanese the latter were reinforced and resumed the fight, but all their attacks were repulsed. The Russians captured a considerable quantity of supplies and held the position until ordered to retire. The Japanese losses, Gen. Linevitch says, were enormous.

The steamer Minnesota, dressed in flags in honor of the Japanese peace plenipotentiaries on board, sailed for Seattle. Marquis Ito, Premier Katsura, the other members of the cabinet, Mr. Griescom, the American minister, and the staff of the legation accompanied Baron Komura and his party to the Minnesota.

A landing of Japanese troops on the island of Sakhalin was officially reported and started military circles in St. Petersburg, though it had been realized since the defeat of Adm. Rojestvensky that the Japanese were able to take possession of the island as soon as they thought fit.

Bonds were furnished by three of Chicago packing companies, and 13 of the individual packers indicted by the federal grand jury.

Militiamen, policemen, deputy sheriffs and other officers of the law are to be barred forever from membership in the Industrial Workers of the World, the new organization.

The Japanese government has revoked its contract with the American Tobacco Co. Japan enters the field as an independent buyer. The tobacco bought will be shipped and will be manufactured in Japan.

The merchants of Canton are preparing a petition to President Roosevelt representing the hardships of the Chinese exclusion treaty. Placards are posted throughout the city declaring a boycott of American goods.

The department of agriculture has prepared and is ready to begin 1,200 suits against the railroads of this country to secure the imposition of a penalty of $500 in each case for every violation of the so-called 24 hour law.

According to dispatches received from 150 of the principal cities of the United States, 30 people were killed and 1,677 injured by explosions of firecrackers, firearms, gunpowder and toy pistols on the Fourth of July.

Secretary Atkinson, chairman of the new territorial board of immigration, at Honolulu, who has just returned from Washington, is preparing plans for the encouragement of settlers to come there. Atkinson wants a liberal land policy.

An immense amount of damage was done in Baltimore city and county by rains culminating in a cloudburst in the vicinity of Timonium, about ten miles from Baltimore.

Fire in the lumber yard district of Boston did about $200,000 damage to the yards and wharfing property.

Henry J. Handy, colored, murderer of his wife, paid the penalty on the gallows at Salisbury, Md.

Incorporation papers have been received by the organizers of the Illinois and Missouri Tunnel Co., formed for the purpose of excavating a tunnel under the Mississippi river between St. Louis and East St. Louis, Ill., for the handling of traffic.

Miss Maggie Thorin and Miss Elin Olsson, natives of Sweden, who were guests of the wife of President Perin, of the Embrey Iron Co., at Embreyville, Tenn., were drowned in the river while bathing.

By an explosion in the Tidewater mine at Vivian, 20 miles west of Bluefield, W. Va., nine miners, all of whom were Italians, were injured and two of them died later in the hospital while three more are in a precarious condition with slight chances of recovery.

Fred Ross, of Denver, who was knocked out by Jack Donnelly, of St. Louis, in the 15th round of a prize fight, is dead. His neck was dislocated and a blood clot gathered on the brain.

The population of Chicago is 2,272,760 according to the city directory for 1905, which has just been completed.

Health Commissioner Darlington reported that 1,091,291 pounds of adulterated food was detected and condemned by his inspectors in New York city during the single week beginning June 18.

A tornado which struck Texas in the upper edge of Montague county, coming from the northeast and swinging far to the southeast, caused the loss, it is believed, of over 40 lives, injuring a large number of people and did untold damage to growing crops and cattle.

President Roosevelt has offered the position of secretary of state to Elihu Root. The offer was made while on their way back to the train, after the funeral services over the body of Secretary of State Hay. Mr. Root at first declined, and asked that he be not pressed.

Elihu Root has accepted the portfolio of state. Announcement of this fact was made at the executive offices. He will take the oath in a couple of weeks, but it will necessarily be some little time before he closes his business affairs. He will not go to Washington permanently until some time in September.

The formal opening of the 23d International Christian Endeavor convention took place in Armory hall, Baltimore, with about 8,000 delegates present.

In the presence of the highest dignitaries of France, the diplomatic representatives of many foreign governments and civil and naval officials of the United States, the body of Adm. John Paul Jones was formally delivered to the United States government in Paris. The ceremony was one combining impressive dignity with brilliant military and naval pomp.

Twenty-six persons are known to have been killed and 50 injured by the tornado which swept over a portion of Montague county in Northern Texas. The property loss will probably total $200,000.

Gov. Hoch and Attorney General Coleman are preparing to bring criminal proceedings against State Treasurer Thomas T. Kelly, of Kansas, unless he secures a new bond to repair the old one made invalid by the failure of C. J. Devlin.

A crowd of 30,000 persons which turned out to welcome President Roosevelt made the closing day of the National Educational association convention at Asbury Park, N. J., the most impressive of all the great educational meetings.

Amos Holmes, colored, paid the death penalty for assaulting a white woman at New Iberia, La.

Baron Rosen, who will succeed Count Cassini as ambassador of Russia to the United States, and who comes to this country in the dual role of diplomatic representative and one of the Russian plenipotentiaries to the peace conference, reached Washington.

The Russian hospital ship Kostroma has arrived at Manila for the purpose of removing the wounded and sick among the Russian crews who took refuge there after the battle of the Sea of Japan.

Lieut. Ridiger, chief of the chancellery of the war office, has been appointed minister of war in succession to Lieut. Gen. Sakaroff, who recently resigned. Lieut. Gen. Palatyn was appointed chief of the general staff.

Thirty-four indictments and a report criticising the recorder's court of Detroit for lax methods in the naturalization of foreigners were presented to Judge Swan, of the United States court, by the federal grand jury at Detroit.

Adrian H. Larkin, of New York, has sued C. F. Leach, collector of customs in the United States court, in Cleveland, to compel him to return certain of Mrs. Chadwick's jewels which Mr. Larkin says were obtained from him wrongfully.

Hungary has thrown down the gauntlet to Austria, and is desirous to follow Norway's example and free herself from the Austrian yoke. The present situation, unless carefully handled, will lead to an acute crisis and involve all of Europe in turmoil.

A Tokio correspondent declares that Gen. Linevitch has sentenced several Russian officers to death for circulating seditious circulars.

Miss Nannie Brown, an eighteen-year-old colored domestic, while searching for a stray cow near Homestead, a half mile east of Butte, Mont., stumbled into a gopher hole in which the gold fairly glittered. The girl carried the sparkling rock home and assays in Butte by a number of reputable assayers show that the rock carries over $1,000 in gold to the ton.

The arbitrators to settle the dispute between the Illinois coal operators and miners over who shall pay the shot firers came to an agreement. The miners shall reimburse the operators one-half for the expenses incurred in the shot firers employment.

It is not unlikely that the administration of affairs connected with the construction of the Panama canal may be transferred from the war department to the state department.

Eleven men were drowned at Little Falls Dam, Wis. Their boat capsized and they were thrown into the wild rapids in the Chippewa river.

Business failures in the United States for the week ending July 6 were far below the normal for this time of the year, being only 127, against 186 last week, 172 in the same week of 1904 and 154 in 1903.

As he was being taken to the police station in New York on a charge of assault, Emilie Gerdron, 42, was shot and killed by Bertha Claiat, a young woman with whom he is said to have been living for six years.

Ten persons were prostrated and rendered unconscious by a stroke of lightning in Prospect Park, Brooklyn. The tennis lawn was crowded with players when a sudden thunder storm drove all to shelter.

If the family of Secretary John Hay will consent, Cleveland admirers of the dead statesman may start a fund for a memorial to him, or may even contribute the entire necessary amount themselves.

The jury in the case of Mrs. Estelle Smith, of Manchester, Va., charged with beating to death her five-year-old son Ralph, returned a verdict of voluntary manslaughter and fixed the penalty at five years in the penitentiary.

Leverett L. Hull, a young and wealthy clubman, popular in North Side society circles, fell dead in his apartments in the exclusive Union Club, Chicago. A bottle of corrosive sublimate was found beside him. His physician says it was a case of apoplexy or heart disease.

Mr. Adey, second assistant secretary of state, who has just returned to the United States from France, in which country he made a tour on his bicycle, assumed the duties of acting secretary of state.

The president has designated Lieut. Gen. Chaffee to act as secretary of war in case Assistant Secretary Oliver should be absent from the city, and Maj. Gen. Bates, assistant chief of staff, to act in the event of the absence of both Secretary Oliver and General Chaffee. The arrangement will continue until the return of Secretary Taft.

Victor H. Olmstead has been appointed associate statistician of the department of agriculture to succeed Edwin S. Holmes, who was ordered removed by Secretary Willson.

Two men have been added to the force from the office of the New York Superintendent of Insurance which is investigating the Mutual Life Insurance Co., so that there are five men representing Mr. Hendricks in going over the accounts of that company.

Hezekiah Hall, aged 56 years, awaited in Lee county, Va., on a charge of murdering John Grubb, was arrested at Chehalis, Wash. Hall admits that he killed Grubb, but says he did it in self-defense. He stated to Sheriff Urquhart that he had killed eight men.

In a fight between revenue officers and illicit distillers in Buchanan county, Va., three of the moonshiners were killed and three wounded.

Walter Kittredge, poet and author of "Tenting on the Old Camp Grounds," died at his home at Reed's Ferry, near Manchester, N. H., of old age.

Two brothers, Lee and Frank Wend, both adults, were drowned in the mouth of the harbor at Kenosha, Wis.

Fire destroyed the building of the Gulf Compress Co., Meridian, Miss. Over 14,000 bales of cotton was in storage and about 5,000 bales were damaged or destroyed. The loss is about $175,000, partially insured.

Orville Glassford, 21, and his brother Lee, 16, were drowned in the Belle river, near Memphis, Mich., while in swimming.

At Goldfield, Nev., two blocks of the business and residence sections have been totally destroyed by fire, entailing a loss of $200,000.

Another conference of attorneys was held to discuss the situation arising from the loss of the state funds in the defunct First National bank at Topeka, Kan. It is announced that Gov. Hoch will demand the resignation of State Treasurer T. T. Kelly.

Nine people were injured, one of them fatally, at Detroit, when a Trumbull avenue car crashed into a wagonload of people returning from a drive about Belle Isle Park.

As a result of the investigation by secret service agents into the charges made by Richard Cheatham, secretary of the Cotton Planters' association, that information had been given cotton brokers in New York by some person or persons in the bureau of agriculture, Secretary Wilson dismissed from the service Assistant Statistician E. S. Holmes.

In a battle between cowboys of a wild west show and excursionists near Burnsville, W. Va., two of the former were killed and some of the latter wounded.

Lewis W. Stone, 58, a wealthy real estate dealer, was found dead in the library of his residence in Chicago, with a bullet wound through his temple, self-inflicted.

William Orr is dead at Toronto. He was one of the men who cut the steam-car line from her moorings and sent her over Niagara Falls during the rebellion of 1837-8. The Caroline was the supply ship of the Canadian rebel troops.

Hampton Oakee, white, and James Pannell, a negro, ferrymen at Towler's Ferry on Staunton river, were drowned while rowing a party across the river at Danville, Va.

There is high military authority for stating that Sweden is taking precautionary measures on the frontier to offset the reported threatening attitude of Norway.

John Burch, colored, was hanged in Baltimore for the murder of his sweetheart, Luella McCoy.

Will Manning, white, was hanged at Greenville, Tex., for poisoning his wife December 31, 1904.

MUTINEERS YIELD.

The Kniaz Potemkine Surrendered to Roumanian Officials.

Russian Torpedo Boat, Which Accompanied the Rebel Warship, Left the Roumanian Port For Odessa Without Surrendering.

Kustentzi, Roumania, July 10.—The flag of St. Andrew once again floats over the battleship Kniaz Potemkine which had proved such terrors to the Black Sea communities for a couple of weeks.

The formal surrender of the mutinous crew occurred Saturday afternoon after a series of discussions and negotiations between the Roumanian authorities and leaders of the mutineers. The Roumanian officers who boarded the battleship on her arrival here called upon the crew to surrender, in which case they would be treated as foreign deserters, or else to leave the port forthwith.

Adm. Kruger Sunday afternoon boarded and took possession of the Russian battleship Kniaz Potemkine, King Charles of Roumania having sent instructions to the commander of the Roumanian squadron that the vessel be delivered to the Russian authorities without raising difficulties.

The torpedo boat which accompanied the Kniaz Potemkine, however, left for Odessa without surrendering, declaring that she had not mutinied but that the Kniaz Potemkine had forced her to follow.

Adm. Kruger arrived with his squadron after exchanging the customary salute, and intimated that he had come to arrange for the transfer of the Kniaz Potemkine. Adm. Koslinski, commander of the Roumanian squadron, boarded the Russian battleship Tchesme and informed Adm. Kruger that King Charles had ordered him to turn the vessel over to the Russian admiral.

FRAUD ORDER ISSUED.

Mail of Peoples United States Bank and Publisher Lewis Stopped.

Washington, July 10.—Postmaster General Cortelyou announced the issuance of a fraud order against the People's United States bank, of St. Louis, Mo., its officers and agents and E. G. Lewis, a publisher, effective July 9. The action bars the company from the use of the mails after an investigation by the postal authorities as to the details of the business of the institution. The postmaster general in his announcement says: "It is understood that the funds of the bank which have not been borrowed by Mr. Lewis and her enterprises amounting to about two-thirds of the total amount remitted, are deposited in banks and will be available toward reimbursement of the stockholders who number upwards of 65,000. It is the intention of the officers of the post office department to co-operate with the secretary of state at Missouri in every proper way for the interests of the investors and depositors."

BLOWN TO PIECES.

Eight Men Killed and Two Injured in a Premature Explosion.

Harrisburg, Pa., July 10.—Eight men were blown to pieces and two others were injured by the premature explosion of a big blast of rock powder on the Pennsylvania railroad improvement near New Cumberland. The accident occurred directly across the Susquehanna river from the scene of the Pennsylvania railroad wreck on May 11 in which 23 persons were killed and many others injured. All the victims of the last disaster were employees of P. S. Kerbaugh and Co., incorporated contractors, who are building the double tracks for the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. to connect with the Enola yards. The bodies of the men were terribly mangled and particles of flesh and bone were scattered for a distance of 200 yards from the scene of the explosion.

Not a trace of two colored men who were killed can be found and it is supposed their bodies were blown into the river which is being dragged.

Sailed For the Orient.

San Francisco, July 10.—The steamer Manchuria, having aboard Secretary of War Taft, Miss Alice Roosevelt and a large party of United States senators and congressmen, sailed for the Philippine islands.

Count Cassini Leaves.

Washington, July 10.—Count Cassini, Russia's first ambassador to the United States, after seven years' service here, left for New York, where he sails for Europe and will later go to his new post at Madrid.

The First Subway Train.

New York, July 10.—The first subway train to reach the South ferry terminal arrived there at midnight. The departure of this train opened the new terminal and other subway stations below Wall street to regular traffic.

Honored John Hay's Memory.

New York, July 10.—Jews of the east side thronged the synagogue of the Roumanian-American congregation in Rivington street to honor the memory of the late John Hay, secretary of state. Congressman Goldfogle delivered a eulogy.

Will Wed a Baroness.

Venice, July 10.—The engagement is announced of Paul Nash, American consul here, and the Baroness Ina Mayneri, of Piedmont. The baroness, who moves in the highest society, is at present residing in Venice.

STATE NEWS HAPPENINGS

THE POWERS CASE.

A Decision Taking It From the State To a Federal Court.

Maysville, Ky., July 8.—Judge Cochran, of the United States district court, has taken jurisdiction in the Caleb Powers case. This means that the famous case will be tried in the federal court.

Frankfort, Ky., July 8.—There will be a conflict of authority between the federal and state courts in the case of Caleb Powers for the Goebel murder. Circuit Judge Stout will call the case for trial in the circuit court at Georgetown Monday for the fourth trial, notwithstanding the decision of Judge Cochran, of the federal court. Judge Stout is at Versailles holding court, but it can be reliably stated that he will call the case and expects the prisoner to be present.

Louisville, Ky., July 8.—Gov. Beckham, when asked for an expression as to Judge Cochran's decision, replied: "I have not read the decision fully and am not prepared to say anything. At any event it is a question of jurisdiction between the state and federal courts, which will be decided by the supreme court of the United States."

Georgetown, Ky., July 8.—Caleb Powers, in jail here, when informed of Judge Cochran's decision, appeared serene and jubilant.

DEATH OF CAPT. CLAYTON.

He Was at the Head of the Original Kentucky Lottery.

Covington, Ky., July 10.—John Clayton, 76, a pioneer of this city, with a unique business history, died at his home, 71 East Tenth street, after several weeks' illness. Capt. Clayton was the recognized head of the original Kentucky Lottery Co., which operated under the laws passed by the state legislature to provide school funds for certain counties in the state, of which Kenton county was not one. For years the lottery flourished and the office at the northeast corner of Fourth and Scott streets, was the Mecca of the lottery men of Cincinnati, Covington and all the Ohio valley until the federal authorities, in 1889, stepped in and declared the game illegal.

A HORSE'S NEIGH.

Caused a Little Child To Drop Dead From Fright.

Elizabethtown, Ky., July 7.—Virgil Carrott, aged three years, was frightened to death while playing in front of his parents' home near this city. A passing horse gave a shrill neigh, a few feet from the child, and the latter was seen to fall. When picked up the little thing was found to have expired almost instantly. The strange manner of the child's death has produced a decided sensation here.

Stolen Goods Recovered.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., July 7.—Thieves stole a bag containing diamond rings, studs and other jewelry belonging to Mrs. Nannie J. McCorm, from a dresser in her room. Becoming frightened from fear of being caught or accidentally they dropped the bag in their flight.

Tobacco Warehouse Destroyed.

Mt. Olive, Ky., July 8.—The large tobacco warehouse belonging to Willis Wiggins, of near Sardis, was burned, being set on fire by sparks from a passing traction engine. About 15,000 pounds of tobacco and many farming implements were consumed.

Ended His Life.

Covington, Ky., July 7.—Henry Taphorn, 68, a rolling mill employee, who had been told that he was liable to die of heart trouble at any moment, ended worry over his ill health by hanging himself to a little tree in the rear of his house on Edward street.

Wrote His Name in Blood.

Owensboro, Ky., July 10.—When the cell which was occupied by Robert S. Mathley, the dual murderer, up to the time of his execution Friday, was inspected by the jail authorities it was found that he had written his name in letters of blood on the walls of the cell.

Five Injured in a Wreck.

Lexington, Ky., July 10.—A passenger train on the L. & N. railroad from Louisville ran into an open switch in the local yards and five people were injured. It is believed by officials of the road that the switch was thrown by some one to wreck the train.

Shot While Resisting Arrest.

Russellville, Ky., July 7.—Frank Young was shot in the leg by Policeman Taylor Walker while resisting arrest. It is claimed by the officer that Young was drinking, and that he assaulted a white lad, cutting an ugly gash in his cheek.

She Gets Her Share.

Louisville, Ky., July 10.—Forty years after Samuel Martin was supposed to have died, fighting for his country, his first, and only real wife, has secured judgment for her one-third interest in his estate, which is valued at about $11,000.

Killed in Feud Battle.

Mayking, Ky., July 10.—In a Scott county feud battle Walter Nickels, 40, of Ft. Blackton, shot and instantly killed Robert Green, 37, the first killing in 15 years, although the feud has never been dropped.

HIGH BRED STALLIONS.

Five Have Been Purchased For the Japanese Government.

Lexington, Ky., July 10.—B. Hiesava and T. Hayashi, representatives of the Japanese government, have closed the purchase of five highly bred stallions to be sent to the royal stud. Three are thoroughbreds and the others registered trotters. The consideration in each case is private. The thoroughbreds bought at J. B. Haggin's Elmhurst are Renald Six, by Salvator, dam Scotch Fir; Teddy Mac, 5, by Candlermas, dam Tongase; W. G. Roeder, 4, by Orsini, dam Emigre. Bought of W. L. Spears, the trotters are Sanchez, 7, by Worthier, dam Maximo; Plutocrat, 3, by Jay McGregor, dam Millionaire.

MURDER MATLEY HANGED.

He Made a Futile Effort to Take His Own Life.

Owensboro, Ky., July 8.—After a futile attempt at suicide Robert Mathley was hanged at sunrise in the jail yard for the murder of Emma Watkins and James Gregson. The crime was committed June 26, 1904. Jealously was the cause. Mathley on the scaffold declared that a woman swore his life away. During the night Mathley tore the veins in his arm and nearly bled to death before his attempt to commit suicide was discovered. He was 40 years of age and a contractor.

NEGRO LYNCHED.

He Was Being Taken From Taylorsville To Shelbyville.

Shelbyville, Ky., July 8.—Lon Beard, a negro, who had been arrested on the charge of assaulting Mrs. Chester Crawford, of Normandy, was lynched at that place. He was being taken from Taylorsville to Shelbyville for safe-keeping, but when the train arrived at Normandy a mob of about 25 men entered the day coach and riddled Beard with bullets as he sat in his seat.

A PISTOL DUEL.

Green Murrell Killed and Harve Rice Seriously Wounded.

London, Ky., July 10.—A telephone message tells of the killing of Green Murrell, a desperate rowdy, by Harve Rice, at the latter's store on Indian creek, in Owsley county. A pistol duel occurred in which each fired several shots. Murrell fired first, wounding Rice seriously, the ball taking effect over the right eye. Rice then shot Murrell dead. Rice is very prominent, being the republican nominee for sheriff of Owsley county.

With a Bullet in His Leg.

Louisville, Ky., July 10.—"Pap" Dunn, 70, night watchman for the Louisville Elevator Co., was found unconscious with a bullet wound in his leg. He had accidentally shot himself at 7 o'clock the night before. Instead of summoning aid or going home he made his rounds the remainder of the night without missing a single hour on the "watchman's clock" record.

Killed His Brother-in-Law.

Lancaster, Ky., July 7.—James Baughman, a colored farmer of Point Leavell, this county, was shot here by Shelby Rothwell, a brother of Baughman's wife. Baughman was drinking and struck his wife severely when Rothwell fired.

Insurance Rates.

Frankfort, Ky., July 7.—Gov. Beckham has received many reports from over Kentucky that fire insurance companies are discriminating against the people of this state and charging them excessively high rates on their policies as compared with the charges made in other states.

Killed in an Explosion.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., July 7.—In Madison county the boiler of the Richmond pop factory blew up. Frank Dudley, who was standing by, was instantly killed, his body being horribly mangled. Emil Lorisich, owner, narrowly escaped serious injury.

Commutation of Sentence Asked.

Hopkinsville, Ky., July 7.—A petition requesting Gov. Beckham to commute George Holland's sentence of death to life imprisonment was sent to Frankfort. It was signed by nearly all of the court officials and a number of citizens.

In a Serious Condition.

Newport, Ky., July 10.—Mrs. Edward Berry, who, with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Col. R. W. Nelson, were the victims of a collision between their carriage and an electric car at Fifth and Race streets, is in a serious condition at her home as a result of the accident.

Shot His Brother-in-Law.

Leitchfield, Ky., July 10.—Robert Day, a saloonkeeper at Hudsonville, shot and mortally wounded his brother-in-law, Lee H. Hudson. It is said that Day called him to his door and fired upon him with a gun loaded with buckshot.

Two Good Wells Struck.

Sergeant, Ky., July 10.—The new Do-main Oil and Gas Co., a Cincinnati corporation, struck three good wells in the Beaver oil field. Hall well No. 42 came in with a 60-barrel flow. Hall well No. 43 was a close second.